BUNNY PROM

Prom is the culminating dance to a traditional high school experience. It is seen as a very important moment, the same way that high school itself is seen as the best days of your life. If you are a bunny you do not usually go to highschool, let alone attend a prom. In fact most bunnies would not usually think prom was very important at all.

But in the pages of this zine we will see imagined worlds of many bunnies out on their special night, taking prom pictures, being shunned by the cool cliques, and dancing to whatever the bunny DJ feels like playing. Really it's all about romance and nothing says romance like bunnies. Also this is the last zine we will make together before Valentine's day. Love is in the air!

Proms are often a better experience in the mind's eye than in reality! We think of fancy dress, decorations, and spiked punch. But it usually has a lot more to do with chaperones, unmet expectations, and awkwardness. Even the aspect of prom royalty causes ax issues with equity among the students. Many of the people I have talked to tonight did not go to prom or even had bad experiences there.

This prompt was chosen in the usual way and drawn from 7-10pm at La Voyeur on a Sunday. You could be a drawer too, it's so easy to join!

If youwant more information on Proms, watch the movie Carrie starring Sissy Spacek or the movie Prom Night starring Jamie Lee Curtis. If you want to know more about bunnies watch the animated mavie Watership Down. Or just turn the page and let the Night Drawers take you to the prom you always wished you would be invited to... The Night Drawer is a drawing night and collaborative art zine made every week on Sundays at Le Voyeur in Olympia, WA. At 7pm a new prompt is chosen from the drawer and everyone is invited to make a page inspired by that prompt. No one knows what the prompt will be beforehand, but anyone can add new prompts into the drawer at any time. All the pages are collected and made into this zine. The Night Drawer is open to the public and welcomes artists of all styles and skill levels.
